Centuries ago in Mongolia, the Mighty Khan's hunting parties and warriors would prepare slivers of meat cut with the sword edge, together with a special combination of vegetables, incense, spices and sauces and grill their meals on upturned shields. You combine our chef's suggestions with your favorite ingredients from the best meat including beef, lamb, pork and chicken, together with a great variety of vegetables. Add to your bowl our special sauces, herbs and spices and present your creation to our chef and watch it being grilled before your very eyes on the Warriors Grill.
